Holiday Happenings Four - December 4, 2008

Chinoiserie Fantasy

This year our front room takes inspiration from the Chinoiserie style popular throughout Europe in the 17th - 19th century. Chinoiserie is characterized by the use of fanciful imagery of an imaginary China; pastel tones and natural elements abound.

Come step into a world seen through rose colored glasses as you leave your troubles and cares behind.

Woodland Fun

From a far-east influenced fantasy in front, we take you into the forrest in our back room. We have gathered a variety of woodland friends for your tree in this room, including squirrels, acorns, mushrooms, pinecones and a Gnome named Hudson.

WinterWalk

This Saturday

The 12th Annual Hudson Opera House Winter Walk is this Saturday, December 6, from 5 to 8 PM.

We will have homemade cookies and hot mulled cider for you to enjoy, but come early - we ran out last year! Other highlights include live music in many shops, mimes, street performers and a visit by Santa. The evening is capped off by a fireworks display. Follow the link below for more information and events, including details on parking.
