Happenings - November 14, 2008

New From France

Introducing Cire Trudon, an amazing collection of perfumed candles we discovered in Paris. Founded in 1643, Maison Trudon is a company with a long and rich history. In 1719, Trudon was appointed royal wax manufacturer to the French Court. Wax supplier to Napoleon during the Empire, Maison Trudon kept on prospering throughout the centuries without interruption. Cire Trudon is now the oldest French manufacturer and produces candles of the best quality according to its time-honored traditions. Come in and sample exquisite scents including Trianon, Balmoral and Roi Soleil.

A Night for Memories

Winter Walk is one of my favorite nights of the year. It is a night when barriers disappear; everyone feels welcome to wander and explore all the great shops, places and things that Hudson has to offer.

I look down Warren Street and see crowds shopping, eating and engaging in this great community. The air is filled with excitement and the energy that has moved our community forward.

The Perfect Gift - Books

Books make wonderful gifts for anyone on your list and we have a wide range of titles to choose from. Informative, entertaining and decorative, a good book reflects your good taste and thoughtfulness every time the recipient picks it up. We've compiled a list of twelve of our favorites. Send an email to booklist@hudson-home.com and we'll send you a copy of our 2008 holiday book gift list.

It is a night when we can all say thank you to our town by just participating. This experience can't be found in a catalog, on the internet, or in a shopping mall. It is something that must be experienced first-hand. So come, take a Winter Walk down Warren Street!
